MONDAY, OCTOBER 4 1736.

No 397.

By our laſt arrived the Mail due from Holland, with the following Letter from the Pope to the Elector of Mentz and other Princes of the Empire of his Communion, exhorting them to oppoſe the Repeal of the Clauſe of the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryſwick.

Venerable Brother, Greeting, and our Apoſtolick Benediction,

S it is very proper that we who are charged with the Care and Duties of the Apoſtoleſhip, ſhould be animated with a continual Vigilance and Attention, to heal the Wounds of the Church, when there is any Appearance of Succeſs; ſo our Conſcience could not reſt ſt after we heard that the Dyet of Ratisbon, in tempt of the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryſ- , conſented two Years ago that the Catholick ligion ſhould be aboliſhed in a great many Parts Germany, where the ſame had been again intre- ed and reſtored. Your Fraternity, to whom we te upon that Head, is not ignorant of the Com- nts that we made, nor of the Exhortations and d Offices that we employ'd to divert that Storm your illuſtrious People.

They who were willing to be excus'd from their rts to remedy this Evil, did ſome of them plead Calamity of the Times, and others the Circum- es of War: But now, ſince the Peace, the ndations of which are laid, will ſhortly be con- ded, that Plea can ſubſiſt no longer. Therefore earneſtly deſire of you, that by virtue of your leſiaſtical and Electoral Dignity, you would zea- ly employ yourſelf that the 4th Article of the aty of Ryſwick may be preſerved entire; and cover, that it may be confirm'd in the new Treaty a General Peace, as it was in the Congreſs of en in Swiſſerland. If Things ſhould take a Turn trary to our Hopes (which Evil God forbid) we ld have reaſon to be ſurpriz'd, and complain rly to find the Enterprizes of Foreigners to baniſh true Faith from Places where it was eſtabliſhed, nded with more Succeſs than our Vigilance to ntain it.

We propoſe to make uſe of all the Power in our ds, and in thoſe of the Holy Apoſtolical See for Purpoſe. We raiſe our Voice that a proper edy may be applied to this Evil, before it s dangerous. We are not willing, either by our ligence, or by our Silence, to take the Blame of rs upon ourſelves; and to the end that you may ur effectually with the ſame Spirit, we give you, rable Brother, our Apoſtolical Benediction in all lenitude.

ven at Rome at St. Mary Major, under the Seal of the Fiſher, the of the Year 1736, and of our Pontificate the 6th.

enna, September 8. We are impatient for the rmation and Conſequences of the Reſolution n by the Rebels at their laſt Meeting to oblige n Theodore to quit the Iſland, in caſe that he not receive the promiſed Succours before End of this Month, and in the mean e to deprive him of all manner of Authority, ant to the Declarations which they have cauſed ſet up in divers Places. But as to the Letters Baſſia, which brought us this News, add, that Baron, notwithſtanding the ſaid Roſolution, con- s to exerciſe the ſame Authority. Many People pprehenſive that all which the Rebels have out on this Head, is only a Stratagem to amuſe enoeſe; the rather becauſe we hear that Theo- has been joined by ſome Foreigners, and that put himſelf at the Head of a Body of Troops me ſecret Enterprize. Mean time Letters from Baron have been intercepted, which contain in Proofs that he has no Concern with the Court ain, and is not ſupported by it, either directly ectly; but that he courts the Aſſiſtance and ction of a certain Power, whoſe Intereſts are ly oppoſite to thoſe of Spain. As ſoon as theſe rs were peruſed in the Senate, Orders were ſent to the Miniſter of the Republick reſiding at the Court, whoſe Protection Theodore ſollicits, to oppoſe him with all his Might, and for that End to ſpare neither Gold nor Promiſes.

Petersburg, Sept. 4. O. S. 'Tis confirm'd, that the Count de Munich has demoliſhed the Lines of Precop, and abandoned the Town of that Name. He has alſo withdrawn the Gariſon that was at Kinburn, in order to encamp at Czariczenka, upon the Frontier of the Ukrain, that he may be the nearer at Hand to obſerve the Motions of the Turks; and that General march'd with his whole Army on the 20th ult. for that Purpoſe, expecting to be join'd by the Generals Laſcy and Keyt. Some Days before the Count de Munich ſet out from Precop, the Tartars came in a great Body and fell ſo ſuddenly upon the Horſes of the Ruſſian Cavalry, as they were grazing in the Medows, that Colonel Wedel, who was poſted with 3 Regiments to guard thoſe Horſes, had not Time to get his Men together ſoon enough to oppoſe them; but he made ſuch Haſte to purſue them, that he quickly overtook them, and attack'd them twice with ſuch Succeſs, that he entirely defeated them, and had the good Luck to retake a great Number of the Horſes, but not without the Loſs of 360 Men kill'd and wounded. Orders are ſign'd to raiſe 60,000 Men and 40,000 Horſes, to recruit the Ruſſian Troops.

Leipſick, Sept. 22. O. S. The King and Queen of Poland, being willing to Honour this City with their Preſence for the firſt Time ſince their Acceſſion to the Throne, and alſo to ſee the Fair, arrived here 4 Days ago at 6 o'Clock in the Evening, accompany'd by the Pope's Nuncio, the Baron de Keyſerling, Plenipotentiary of Ruſſia, the Biſhop of Poſen, Count Maurice of Saxony, Count Malachousky, Vice Chancellor of the Crown, the Count Sulkowsky, and the Chevalier de Bruhl, the King's Miniſters, and a great many other Perſons of Diſtinction. Their Majeſties were received by the joyful Acclamations of the People, and in the Evening all the Houſes in the City were illuminated. Their Majeſties and all their Retinue, walk'd out in the high Streets at 10 o'Clock to ſee the Illuminations and Bonfires. Next Day their Majeſties had the Pleaſure of ſeeing our Fair, and the whole Court ſet out Yeſterday for Hubertsbourg.

Gifhorn, Sept. 16. O. S. Three Days ago when the King arrived here, which was about 11 in the Forenoon, his Majeſty was received with the joyful Acclamations of the Inhabitants, who went out in great Numbers to meet him, and after viſiting the Apartments of the Caſtle, and taking the Air on the Ramparts, he din'd in Publick. He ſupp'd that Evening with the Lords and Ladies of his Court, in one of the Baſtions of the Caſtle, in a Place too, where he might be ſeen by the vaſt Concourſe of People that was come to the Village for that Purpoſe. Two Days ago the King, accompanied by ſeveral of the Nobility of both Sexes, hunted the wild Boar in the Neighbouring Foreſt of Barenbourg, and after having killed 117 of thoſe Creatures, of which 15 were monſtrous large, his Majeſty returned hither and dined again in Publick. Yeſterday Morning his Majeſty viewed the Arſenal of this City, and then ſet out for the Gohrde, where he arrived about Noon.

Hanover, Sept. 21. O. S. His Majeſty hunts the Stag every Day at the Gohrde, notwithſtanding it has been bad Weather ever ſince he arrived there. The Flux which was ſo epidemick in and about this City, is almoſt entirely ceaſed, but M. Bruning, his Majeſty's private Secretary, died of it laſt Night. We are aſſured, that Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel, will come hither before the King goes for England, in order to take Leave of his Majeſty, and with him a happy Voyage. His Majeſty will return hither by the Way of Zell.

Warſaw, Sept. 15. O. S. The Flux which has been for ſome Months paſt in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom is become Epidemical: 'Tis ſo dangerous a Diſtemper, and its Progreſs ſo rapid, that it has carried off a great Number of People, and what with thoſe that have died of it, and others that have retir'd to Places that are not infected with it, whole Villages and Hamlets are quite deſerted: For the ſame Reaſon, moſt of the Nobility have left their Eſtates and are come hither, or to Cracow and other Towns. Some Gentlemen and Ladies are alſo gone with their Families to Dantzick, with an Intention to ſtay there till the Diſtemper is abated.

Dantzick, Sept. 17. O. S. The Magiſtrates of this City being informed of the Nature of the Diſtempers that rage in Poland, has forbid the Admittance of all Perſons coming from that Kingdom, unleſs they produce Certificates of Health duly atteſted and vouch'd, by the Magiſtrates of the Towns of Poliſh Pruſſia.

Londonderry, Sept. 18. This Day there being a Common Council held in the Town-houſe, our worthy and truly amiable Biſhop was preſented by the Mayor, attended by the Corporation, with his Freedom in a Gold Box, and Henry Cary, Eſq; a Member of Parliament and a Gent. of great Merit and Fortune, and Charles Mc'Manus, Gent. (the Son of a venerable old Alderman) were elected Burgeſſes of this Corporation by a great Majority, to the univerſal Joy and Satisfaction of the City; and in the Evening an Entertainment was given by the Corporation to the Clergy, the Officers of the Army and the Citizens, where his Majeſty King George, his Royal Conſort the Queen Regent, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and all the Royal Family's Healths, the glorious and immortal Memory of King William, and many other loyal Toaſts were drank.

Dublin, Sept. 25. On Tueſday Morning died at Clontarff near this City, Col. Weſton, who lived formerly at Sutton.

The ſame Day came on the Election of an Alderman, at the Mayoralty-houſe in Dawſon-ſtreet, the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor being then indiſpoſed, ſo that he could not attend at the Tholſel, the uſual Place of Election; and Daniel Cook, Eſq; an eminent Merchant in Jervis-ſtreet was elected, in the room of Alderman Thomas Curtis, lately deceaſed.

Laſt Wedneſday one Henry Buſhell, was committed to Newgate for ſtealing the ſilver Dial Plates from a Clock belonging to the Provoſt of our Univerſity.

Yeſterday there was a Trial before their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and the Right Hon. the Privy Council, about the Election of a Mayor for the City of Kilkenny, between Aldermen Warren and Alderman Shervington, when the former was declared duly elected.

This Week the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Lanesborough, Anthony Shepherd, jun. Eſq; and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, arrived from England.

On Sunday laſt the Wife of Matthew Toole, who lives in Ratnfarnham, went out and left a young Child lying in the Cradle, and hearing it cry violently, ran inſtantly in, thinking it had fallen out of the Cradle; but to her great Surprize, found one of her Husband's Ferrets lying on it, which had eaten out its Eyes.

We hear from Churchs's Town, in the County of Dublin, that laſt Week a large old Maſtiff ſcrap'd open a Grave in the Church Yard there, broke a Coffin, pull'd out of it the Corpſe, and was eating it, when one of the Pariſhioners came into the Church Yard, who acquainting his Neighbours, they immediately ſeized the Dog and hang'd him. A few Days before was found in the ſame Place the Body of a Child much mangled, and the Grave opened in the above Manner, which they now ſuppoſe to have been done by this Maſtiff.

If there was more Care taken in digging Graves deeper than is uſually done, ſuch ſhocking Sights might be prevented; the Corpſe lying ſo near the Surface, the Smell proceeding from them, induces theſe Creatures to tear up the Earth to get at them.

On Friday was very decently interred in the Church of Wallbrook, David Greenhill, deceased, followed by a great Concourse of poor old Seamen and Widows, with Lamentations for the Loss of so great a Benefactor, not only out of his own Charity, but the just and punctual Distribution of that of the Trinity House, of which he was Elder Brother.
